EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Matt Dicke on 9/30/09.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 27, line 1, --including at least one display device, at least one input device, and at least one processor,-- has been inserted after "gaming device";

in claim 27, line 3, --via the at least one input device;-- has been inserted after "base game";

in claim 27, line 4, "displaying" has been replaced with --causing the at least one display device to display--;

in claim 27, line 5, "determining" has been replaced with --causing the at least one processor to determine--;

in claim 32, line 1, "A method" has been replaced with --The method--;

in claim 39, line 1, --at least one display device, at least one input device and at least one processor and-- has been inserted after "having";

in claim 39, line 4, "displaying" has been replaced with --causing the at least one display device to display;

in claim 39, line 17, --via the at least one input device-- has been inserted after "of the selections";

in claim 39, line 24, "activating" has been replaced with --causing the at least one processor to activate--; and in claim 43, line 1, "Claim 39" has been replaced with --Claim 42--.

Reasons For Allowance

Claims 1, 3-12, 14-21, 27 and 29-46 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims as currently amended are allowed because no references, or reasonable combination thereof could be found, which discloses, suggest or teach, the recited features of independent claims 1, 12, 27 & 39. For example, the prior art fails to disclose or teach, a gaming device wherein when a first amount of credits is wagered on each of a plurality of pay lines in the base game, a first number of the selections associated with one of a plurality of different credit values and a second number of the selections associated with a type of selection outcome which is not a credit value, and when a second amount of credits, which is different than the first amount of credits, is wagered on each of the plurality of pay lines in the base game, a third number of the selections associated with one of the plurality of different credit values and a fourth number of the selections associated with a type of selection outcome which is not a credit value, wherein the second number is different than the fourth number, as required by independent claim 1, 12, 27 & 39. Therefore, the prior art fails to disclose or teach the features of independent claims.

The combination of Glavich (US Patent 6,309,300) and Anderson (US Patent 6,428,412) teach allowing player to select items on the game screen, wherein the selections are associated with different types of awards. However, the combination of Glavich and Anderson fails to disclose each and every recited feature of the independent claims, specifically, the combination of Glavich and Anderson fail to teach or disclose providing award of a credit value and non-credit value to players.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to SUNIT PANDYA whose telephone number is (571)272-2823. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th 8 - 5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Dmitry Suhol can be reached on 571-272-4430. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
